Numbers of youngstock are gradually increasing as we get closer to spring.

There was no shortage of buyers around ringside today and all very keen to buy whatever was in front of them.

Leading the trade was a dry cow with her 4th calf in May, from Messrs Lewis, she sold to £1,450, other aged dry cows sold to £1,270.

In-calf heifers were keenly sought after although there were no show winners amongst them, Holsteins sold to £1,360 from Messrs Bourne, Montbeliardes to £1,310 from Messrs Ratcliffe and Brown Swiss to £1,250 from Messrs Haine.

Bulling heifers were particularly sought after with British Friesian bred heifers from Hartpury University selling to £720.
