

Dispersal Sale peaks at £2,200

The autumn calving flying herd of 222 Holstein Friesian and crossbred cows on behalf of JC&E Mason, Lawrence House, Levens which saw a large crowd of buyers in attendance keen to secure additional and replacement stock suitable for modern dairy farming.

The cows were all presented in calf to a British Blue Bull and due to calve August to October.

The sale peaked at £2,200 for Fleckvieh cows with £2,100 achieved for Holstein Friesian and Swedish Reds.

A group of Pro Cross cows attracted keen interest selling to £2,100, £2,050 with 17 averaging £1,710.

Dairy Shorthorns sold to £1,800, Ayrshires £1,500, Brown Swiss £1,450 and Jerseys £1,400.

Younger cows sold to £2,150 for Swedish Red & Whites with Norwegian Reds achieving £1,950 and Fleckviehs £2,000.

222 in calf/ in milk cows averaged £1,483 (including faults)

Joint Auctioneers: North West Auctions and Gwilym Richards